

Inspiration Sheet - 4 in 1 Stampin' Down the Middles

Create 4 card fronts at one time using stamps, ink, and paper.

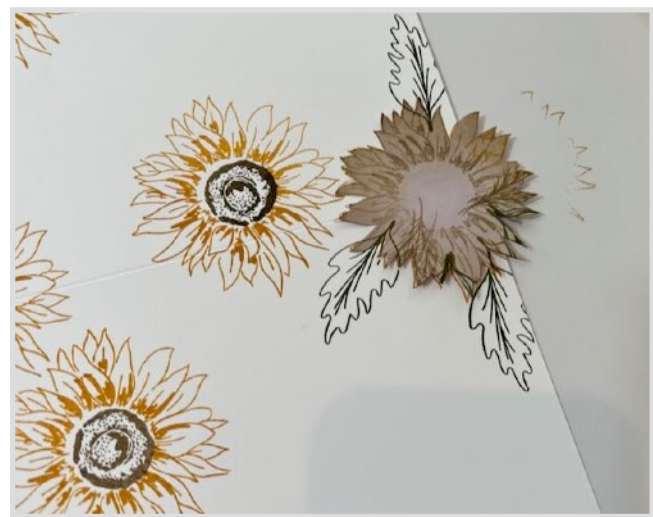

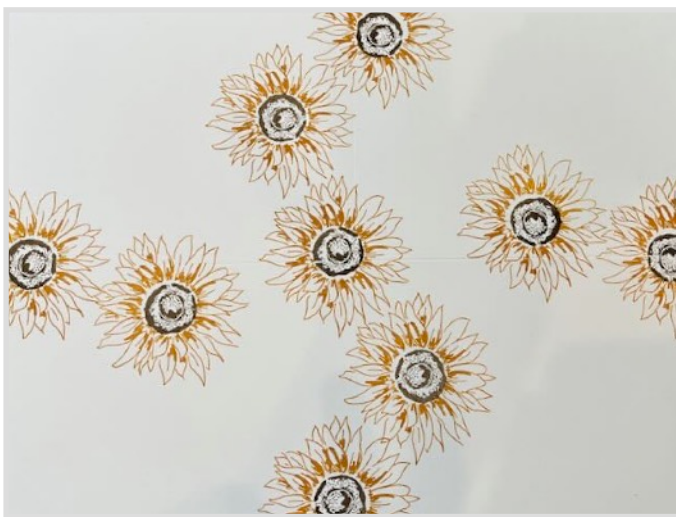

Supplies

- 1 sheet of 8.5" x 11" Basic White cardstock
- 4 card bases 5 1/2" x 8 1/2" in a coordinating cardstock
- 4 coordinating cardstock layers 4-1/8" x 5-3/8"
- Stamp images of varied sizes that can be stamped collage style.
- 4-5 ink pad colors that coordinate
- 4 punched or die cut shapes for greeting
- Ribbon or embellishments of choice
- Optional: Embossing Folder

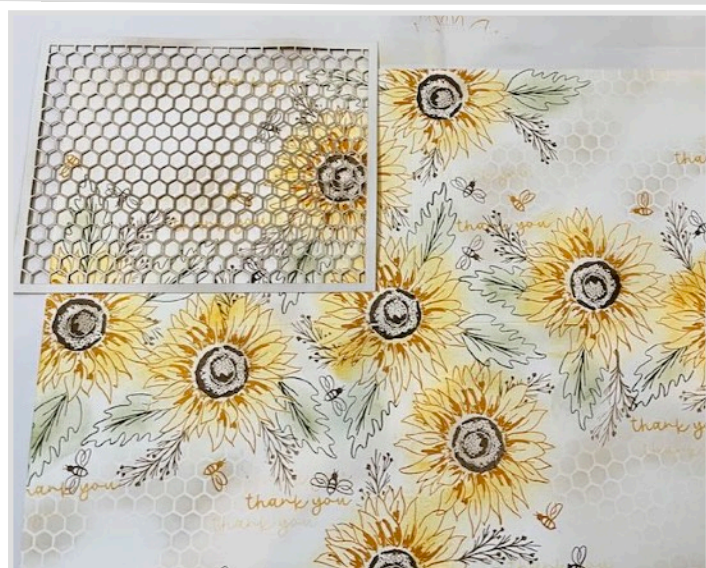

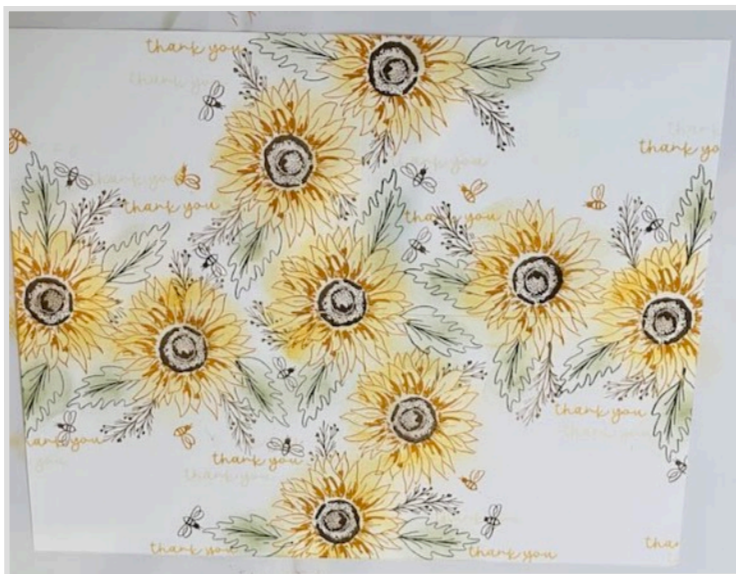

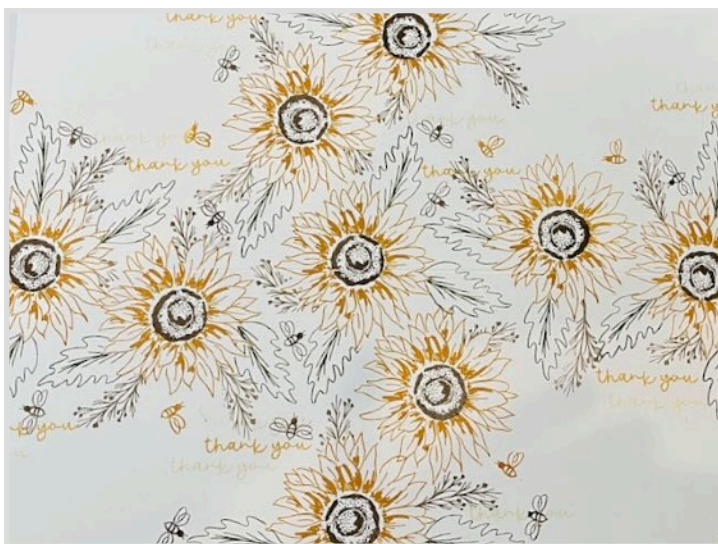

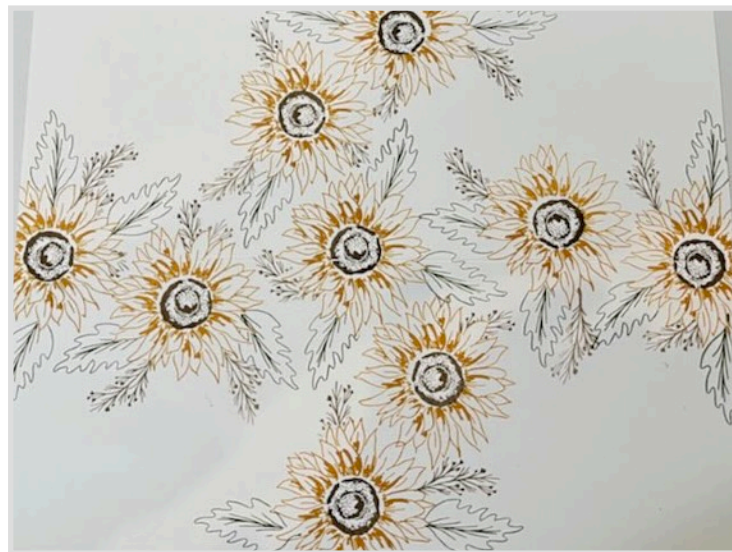

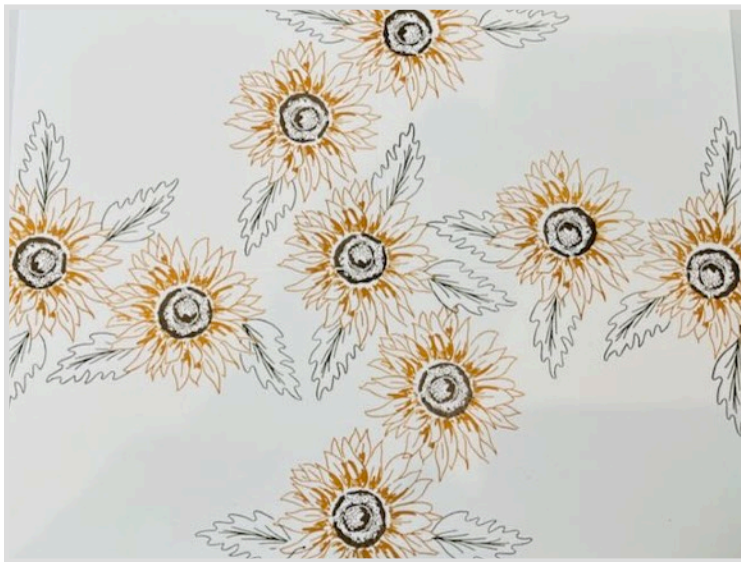

Directions

1. Trim 0.5" from each edge of the Basic White cardstock
2. Very lightly score the cardstock down the middle of each side. Score at 4" on the short edge and 5.25" on the long edge. These score lines serve to guide the stamping placement.
3. Starting with the largest of the images (sunflower), choose one of the ink colors and stamp that image along the score lines in both directions making sure some part of the image in each quadrant at least 3 times. Pro Tip: Turn the image a quarter turn each time you re-ink it and stamp.
4. Take the next largest image (leaf) and a different ink pad color and repeat step 3. I masked each sunflower before adding the leaves around it.
5. Continue this process with all the remaining images and colors being used until the score lines/inside edges of the quadrants are full. Work from largest to smallest image (branch, "thank you", bees).
6. Cut on the score lines to create 4 card fronts.
7. OPTIONAL: Use embossing folder on each card front.
8. Attach card fronts to cardstock layers and then add to card bases. Use punches or dies to stamp main greeting and pop up onto card front.
9. Add ribbon or embellishments.

If you want to use an embossing folder to add even more texture to the card fronts, do it once the pieces are cut on the score lines into quarters.

Choose a die cut or punch to fit the size of your greeting and pop it up anywhere on the card front. Embellish with anything that makes you happy!
